Master Bath Before - There is a shotgun hole in the mirror near the reflection of the light bulb

After

Vandals used 3 or 4 boxes of shotgun shells on the house and garage, shooting anything that could be a target - light fixtures, wall outlets, toilets, appliances, doors, windows, etc. There were 70 panes of glass broken including the sunroom windows. Only a few lights worked, due to the extensive damage to the wiring and electrical boxes because of light fixtures and electrical outlets being shot. Paint and wallpaper were peeling in many of the rooms. In addition, there were about 20 frozen pipes in the water and heating systems. The renovation was completed in two years. The Horsts paid for all the renovation costs to the county property except for the new roof and pointing up the stone foundation.
